

ROMANCE OF REAL LIFE

Berlin Melodies Featured In Capitol's Swanky Film

Dick Powell and Madeleine Carroll Are Co-Starring in Great Hit, "On The Avenue"

Swinging merrily along in the tune of the best songs ever written by the greatest writer of songs in the world, "On The Avenue," opening a week's engagement at the Capitol theatre today, represents in Berlin's melodious best, in a musical that is full of pep and filling good spirits.

With Dick Powell and Madeleine Carroll making a new and prominent record of musical comedy, the lively Twentieth Century - Fox musical presents a realistic romance of New York, in a show that is as big as the town. Alvin Faye, The Ritz Brothers and George Barabier add both melody and north to the production.

CHARMING SWEETHEART

Madeleine Carroll, noted hitherto for straight dramatic roles, makes a charming sweetheart for Dick Powell. The beginning of "On The Avenue" finds her as a wealthy debutante, entering a theatre with her father, George Barber, and an employer, Alan Mowbray, at the moment that Dick Powell, Alvin Faye and the Ritz Brothers are engaged in a hilarious musical scene the home life of "the richest girl in the west."

Fortunate, Madeleine stalks from the theatre, threatens the manager with suit, and brother-in-law a stage doorman to assist Alvin Faye from her head and to break the window of Dick's dressing room before she is forcibly ejected.

CAUSTIC LINES

Rebelling later, Madeleine apologizes for being a poor sport in the previous scene. Dick, however, advises Dick for dinner, falling in love with her, Dick promises to reveal the act, and invites her to the next performance. At this, however, Alvin Faye, Dick's partner, hurls a fire bomb by adding even more caustic lines to the show.

Madeleine takes her revenge on Dick for the public humiliation, in a singing scene, in which the music of Irving Berlin plays a part. Dick finds a way to cheer up the misunderstanding that has parted them and to bring to a thrilling conclusion the film. "Swank in his snuggly, in the romantic scene, and in its lively duet, "On The Avenue" has the added virtue of presenting some superb musical performances by reliable Hollywood funmakers.

LOVELY MELODIES

Worthy of a separate role are the distinctive and lovely melodies Irving Berlin composed for the film. "This Year's Kiss," "You're Laughing at Me," "Blushing on Park Avenue," "I've Got My Love to Keep Me Warm," "The Girl on the Palace Gateway" and a novelty number written for the Ritz Brothers, called "We Ain't Got Nothin' But the Blues," are a few of the songs in charge of production at Twentieth Century-Fox, show the best, noted director of "Autumn in a Heart," and other popular musicals, to direct "On The Avenue" with Gene Markey's successful philosophy. The original screen play is by Markey and William Conselman.

Actors' Bed Sinks With Him Aboard After Tough Day

Porter Hall, who is marked for death by drowning in "Rough Day," is really living his best these days. He sails one of those dizzy dream songs to prove it. His hit scene in the Gary Cooper-Gloria Rath co-starring picture is the one in which he goes down with a burning ship. He has been looking forward to it for some time. And the other night, after making it, he went to bed and fell right off. It was actually happening in his sleep.

He woke up in a daze, with his head pounding, like a hammer, and discovered that his bed had broken, and the mattress had sunk to the floor.

Paul, a game which grew into a croquet, was so much interested in the game, that he was "Crash Donovan," that croquet is becoming a rage in Hollywood.

At 15, The O'Brien made his stage debut as an angel in a Milwaukee, Wis., school play.

'DODSWORTH' IS DREAMLAND HIT

Samuel Goldwyn's most ambitious production, the screen version of Sinclair Lewis' "Dodsworth," which thrilled millions as a best selling novel and a smash stage hit, begins a three-day engagement at the Rialto theatre today.

Walter Huston repeats the title role he created and played for more than two years on the stage. Ruth Chatterton appears opposite him, while Paul Lukas, Mary Astor and David Niven are also prominently featured.

Sidney Howard, who made the stage dramatization of the absorbing and dramatic story of a hard working husband who retired to travel and find himself, but instead found out his selfish frivolous wife, also wrote the screen-play.

The story opens in the small middle-western town of Zeuth and shifts to the decks of the "Queen Mary." Paris, London, Vienna, Berlin and Naples.

"Dodsworth" was produced as a lavish work with settings by Ruth Chatterton and costumes by Omar Kohn. William Wyler directed. The film is released through United Artists.

Marsh, Trent Leads In Comedy-Mystery

Thurs. F. Schubert today again makes a hit with his leading romance role in his forthcoming mystery-mystery, "The Great Gambler," which is produced by Paramount.

He will be featured with Joan Trent, vocalists and Alvin Tarnoff, currently in "High, Wide and Handsome" with Irene Dunne.

GRANT WITHERS HE-MAN

One Man's Funeral Started Another Man Toward Success

"Paradise Express" is Super-Drama of Railroad Life. Now Showing at the Rialto Theatre

Being a newspaper reporter at the funeral of the late Wallace Reid was one of the most interesting scenes in the history of a screen career started for Grant Withers, handsome hunk star of "Paradise Express."

This remarkable super-drama of railroad life comes to the Rialto theatre today, with Dorothy Appleby, Maude Eburne, Harry Davenport, Donald Kirk and Lew Kelly leading the superb supporting cast.

Withers, who was a Los Angeles newspaper reporter for a brief part of his adventurous career, met Douglas McLean, son-director, at the funeral of the popular movie idol. Shortly after that, he told Withers that he had seen possibilities and tried him out as an extra. Since then Withers has played in many pictures and given many "valley" but fine characteristics.

His most recent work with the sensational story, Bobby Breen in "Let's Sing Again," with Lew Ayres in "Lady Be Careful" and in "Jungle Jim," in which Withers has the title role.

THRILLING STORY

London Express tells a thrilling human story of struggle between the forces of good and evil, a modern train line. It is filled with the pulse of life, the thrashing adventure of railroading, and the courage of the men who face danger along lonely lines of steel while they battle for their loved ones.

Christine Maple, young starlet, has never been exactly "crazy over horses" since she had a serious accident while riding as a young girl. Since that day, she has had a deep-seated fear of the animal until she was assigned an important role in "A Man Betrayed," a Republic drama, the second feature of the Rialto's run.

"You have to do some riding for this part," the casting director said when he gave it to her. She didn't say a word about her phobia, being ambitious and not wanting to lose the role. That same evening the blond girl bought a riding habit, went to a nearby stable and against her better judgment, got on the top-side of a rather skittish horse.

Strangely enough, after several rides, she lost all fear of horses, and began to enjoy them.

The Rialto's offer of free dinner-dances to help patrons will continue next week through Thursday.

Roland Gets Lead In Spanish Picture

Paramount today leads up a complete cast for "Last Train From Madrid," the great new film, which will go into production at once, with Zane Grey directing.

Players are: Gilbert Roland, Karen Morley, Robert Cummings, Lionel Atwill, Monte Black, Glynnis Braden, Anthony Quinn and Lee Bowman. George Arthur is producer.

"Last Train From Madrid" is a romantic melodrama on a highly topical theme: values trapped in a country alone in revolution.

"God's Country and the Woman" Stars George Brent

"God's Country and the Woman," Warner Bros.' brilliant picture of the James Oliver Curwood novel of the same name—dealing with a feud between lumber companies in the deep forests of the Great North-West, opens a three-day showing at the Empress Monday, with George Brent and Beverly Roberts in the leading roles.

DIAMANTIC ROMANCE The thrilling dramatic romance of the story is heightened by the fact that the same—aimed at all of which are in the open—were photographed almost wholly in natural color.

Brent and Miss Roberts have an excellent supporting cast including such outstanding favorites as Barton MacLean, Robert Barrat, Alvin Hale, El Brendel, Billy Bevan and Joseph King. Hundreds of real lumberjacks appear in the exciting scenes.

RICH IDEAL

Rich is first seen at a rich ideal who makes a casual visit to the woods where his brother owns a vast tract of timber—and it is tempting by crooked methods to injure the business of a rival lumber company managed by a girl, Miss Roberts.

Discovering the trickery of his brother, Brent denounces him and about to go back to the city when his brother has him shaming and returned to the deep woods where the lush melodrama of love and hate runs its furious course.

There are fierce fights between the steel-muscular lumbermen of the two camps. There are thrilling scenes of a runaway log-train and the blasting of a log jam—there are glamorous love scenes—dramatic action.

John, former British cavalry officer. Ten astute directors aided Director Curtis in handling the difficult action. Six camera photographers it from different positions.

At Rialto

HISTORY'S MOST FAMOUS CHARGE

The most famous cavalry charge in history is remade in Warner Bros. "The Charge of the Light Brigade" starting Earl Firth and Olivia de Havilland—will lead into the Princess theatre on Monday.

Director Michael Curtiz took three weeks to make sequences. Elaborate preparations were made for the filming of the charge, immortalized by Lord Tennyson in his poem. Twenty expert gendarmes worked for a week miming the valley with charges of dynamite. Art Director John Huston constructed sets representing Russian war encampments at the head of the valley and on either side. The horsemen were trained in cavalry manoeuvres by Capt. E. Rodford.

VERNE'S IMMORTAL NOVEL

"The Soldier and the Lady" Filmed as Heroic Adventure

Sensational Anton Walbrook Cast in Hero Role of Strand's Unusual Picture

Bringing to life on the speaking screen the exciting adventure and desperate struggle of Jules Verne's immortal "Michael Stroh" (see page 1), RKO Radio is said to have produced one of the most unusual films of modern times in "The Soldier and the Lady," a dramatization of the novel with the sensational Anton Walbrook in the hero role, at the Strand.

Dealing with the efforts of Stroh, a courier of the Tsar to reach a besieged Russian army at Irkutsk during a sudden rebellion of the Tsar's hordes, the picture sounds in breathless suspense.

These include the shadowing of the courier by a woman spy, his rescue of the spy from the attack of a enraged bear, his meeting with the traitor commanding the Russian rebels; his romance with the Russian girl who accompanies him on his perilous journey; his fight with a tiger in a Siberian river; his capture by a Tartar patrol as he tries to reach the Russian lines; the intensely dramatic moments when he is condemned to be blinded by having a white-hot sword passed before his eyes; the death of the spy; and his triumphant revenge on the Tartar leader in the palace at Irkutsk.

These sequences employ the services of 10,000 troops.

Cluck Gable has offered to teach Fred Astaire life marksmanship if the dancer will teach Cluck how to tap.

GREAT BATTLES As a counterpoint to these gripping scenes, "The Soldier and the Lady" shows what has been acclaimed as two of the greatest battles.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly
Maurice Is Puzzled

Left Threatens
Turf Charter

LAST night a capacity crowd in the Memorial Hall battle bowl saw women wrestlers perform for the first time in Alberta, when Betty Bushey, of Boston, three Katherine La Motte, of Chicago, after nearly 20 minutes of furious mat wrestling. Judging from the chatter around the corridors during intermission time, the girls were a distinct hit with the fans. While they lacked the strength to use some of the more spectacular holds employed by men, they did more tumbling around than 99 per cent of the customers would like to try.

Their show was clean, fast and spectacular. There was absolutely nothing in it that could be objected to in any way. If both girls had had boyish buns on their hair, you might have taken them for men part of the time.

The most perplexed person in the hall was Referee Maurice Delbeck. Always the gallant gentleman, Maurice was obviously flummoxed when it became necessary every now and then to try to get the girls out of the ring. He had to use a lot of force to get them out, and he was not used to this for the first few minutes. He then apparently decided that it was a matter of time before they would have to take a man-handling, and from then on he followed his usual effective technique.

Title Bout Looks Hot

IT is never safe to be too positive about what sort of fight two boxers will put up until you have seen them both in action against the same man. Unfortunately neither Edie McSporn nor "Smoky" Humphreys have ever fought the same man, so you have to fall back on press reports and their records to make any guess as to how they will do in the title bout which will take place on Tuesday night.

At the moment, however, Humphreys seems to be a slight favorite to beat McSporn. He has the build of a fighter, he has had more experience than Edie, he has proven conclusively that he packs a terrific punch—and he is a left-hander. McSporn has never fought a south-paw and this may be the deciding factor in his 10-round clash.

George Shanks will hold a lot of interest for the fans when he battles Jack Kitta over the eight-round route in the semi-final. So far, this battle has shown more promise than any heavyweight we have witnessed here in the past 10 years. His two weeks of training for this fight have developed his style remarkably and he is now in his best form. It is to be expected that the tough Kitta, with a key, George will be shot into main events at once on a campaign that will carry him to the Canadian championship—he can clear the hurdles that lie ahead of him.

Edmonton Horses Eligible

JUST now there are five Edmonton-owned horses eligible for the Macbush Derby that will be run at Windsor Park on July 3, with $2,000 of prize money attracting the outstanding Canadian thoroughbreds. Forty-seven horses, the best three-olds out of stables from Toronto to Vancouver, are now listed to start this feature, but the field will not be made until a month before they go to the barrier. This weeking out will be done automatically by the 28 days of racing that precede the derby.

Edmonton eligibles are Monte Santo, owned by Mrs. L. H. Davidson, Prince George, the stable of S. G. Oliver, Lethbridge, owned by H. King, Whiffen, owned by H. H. Morrison, and Craig McGe, owned by A. J. Robinson. Prince Santo has a real ancestry. He is the son of Will Henson and Lorelei, his sire being imported from the royal stables at Sandringham, England.

Monte Santo will be watched with interest. Last season he was here with the Layzell string from Calgary, a headful horse to look at with sensational speed in his work-outs. He had a habit of breaking wide through at the turn out of the back stretch and nothing could seem to break him of it. No rider could prevent him from going to the outside fence. Monte also had a sort of devilish streak in him. Only one or two handlers could go into his stall, and he was a problem at the barrier. That made matters worse when the point-blinded off the fence. But underneath all this, Monte seemed to have the makings of a magnificent colt. At the same time, his owner could not be sure of his ability. A year more of age and training may have taken these habits. If they have, Monte would be a great horse.

The British Columbian team won the first two games 21-18 and 21-18, but in the third game they called their centermen from "Wendy" by Mr. Ford, took the floor without John Goldman, who remained at home, and the team made the western trip, and ripped past the coast guard at will, scoring nine points without a miss in the first 10 minutes of the game. ## Thou Shalt Not Pass:

When you take a look at the reach of Miss Ellen Friesen, one of the attractive girls of the Wichita Thunder, you can figure out the youngsters of going through the Wichita Thunder. Miss Friesen is said to be a very capable ball handler, with a nice eye for the basket when the decides to go into the floor. Her playing is sure to attract attention out at the arena, May 11 when the Wichita girls oppose the Grads in the second international of the current season.

'Rassle Round - Up

LAST night was an eventful one in Edmonton's wrestling history. The invasion of women to our mat marked an epoch. Those who appear as well as those who disappear (as I hear, protest) will admit this. It means more than greens the passing thought. Women in the last 50 years have had all the realms peddled and barred to the fair sex in the days of hogs and bustles. Yes, and caplets. . . and that just can't be done. Just like in hockey or basketball.

Even at that few men in this town could take on Betty Bushey in a straight wrestling match. . . at her weight of 135 pounds we are talking. About people. . . many new. . . all curious. . . Folks, do you want a honest opinion from a couple of home guys (I'd be blushing)? . . . here it is. . . we think these girls were surprisingly good, no feeling. . . this from an abstract point of view and without saying whether we still think women's place is in the home (I'd be blushing). . . You object? . . . But, Mr. Fan, your objection, if any, is over-ruled. . . and that just can't be done. Just like in hockey or basketball.

SCOTTISH END SOCCER TILTS IN BIG SCORES

MOTHERWELL, Scotland, May 1.—The final match in the Scottish Football League resulted in a riot of scoring here last night. Motherwell, with 10 goals, won 10-0 in fourth place in the first division. Rangers won the championship some time ago. Aberdeen taking second place with 34 points, more than the cup-holding Celtic. Motherwell, named out Heart of Midlothian for fourth place on virtue of a superior goal average, both teams having 51 points. Aberdeen, Dundee and Dundee, tail-end clubs play in the second division, next season, their places being taken by Ayr United and Morton, leading squads in the minor league.

A pleasant surprise was in store for fans who expected two massive "mistakes of nature" to be the result. Instead, two young lads, both dark, vivacious and in the nick of the ropes, were the stars. Betty, the tall and slinky victor, and Katherine, the villain in the end, left nothing undone that they were accustomed to see in their masculine warriors.

Blitzing by Katherine, La Motte's healthy set of legs, half-pulling body slams, head-butts and body slams, all were included in the last round's repertoire. Betty, the tall and slinky victor, and Katherine, the villain in the end, left nothing undone that they were accustomed to see in their masculine warriors.

As supply as a young willow, Betty Bushey had the upper hand throughout the bout, but she was given plenty of get and worry by the Boston brawler. From the spring gun, the girls went at it. . . and the referee, Betty, the tall and slinky victor, and Katherine, the villain in the end, left nothing undone that they were accustomed to see in their masculine warriors.

LEZZY DEAN HURLS GREAT GAME FOR THIRD WIN

Fight Interest Warms Up As Title Go Draws Near

With Eddie McSporan, Alberta's champion, to battle "Smoky" Humpherville of Regina, Saskatoon, and Manitoba champ, here Tuesday night for the midweek championship of the province, interest in the bout was warming up last Saturday. Reports are that a number of bets were being made at even money, while in several cases Humpherville backers were giving odds.

The Regina fighter will arrive with his manager over the weekend and stage a public workout either Sunday evening or Monday afternoon at the Queen's gym.

DRILLING HARD
McSporan drilled desperately yesterday and today in an effort to switch his style so as to combat the terrific left-handed attack that has carried Humpherville to knock-out victories over something like a score of midweekers in Saskatoon and Manitoba. In his gym sparring, Eddie seems to have his style altered enough to meet the left-handed menace, but it is questionable whether or not he can maintain it in the heat of the championship battle—10 rounds that promise to be the hottest seen here this season.

The semi-final ends the seasonal George Shanks against Jack Kilba for eight rounds. Shanks has scored a quick knockout in each of the seven prior fights he has had to date, and if he can land another on Kilba he will move into main event fights leading to the Canadian heavyweight championship.

SPECIAL EVENTS
Two special six-round events are on the card. In the first, Art Lynn will tackle Jimmy Wilson of Saskatoon. Wilson lost on points to Laviole here in the last fight card, but should be a real test for the champion who has been scoring kayos regularly in prelims. Both are middleweights. Hard-hitting Lawrence Ferguson meets Ernie Ferguson in the second six-rounder—another spot that promises real action.

The four-round curtain raiser sees "Dopey" Harding, the colored boxer, tackle Sammie Chaney. The Sammie is the youngest of the fighting champions in the city, having made his pro debut in this bout. The real sale will open at Mike's New Stand on Monday.

"SMOKEY" HUMPHVILLE, midweek champion of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, who has carried Humpherville to knock-out victories over something like a score of midweekers in Saskatoon and Manitoba. ## SKIDS ARE OILED FOR RED RUFFING

CHICAGO, May 1.—His holdout campaign a champion for red ruffing, but a lost otherwise, Red Ruffing, New York Yankees' only Slavonian hurler last year, only contemplated a season, with the Yankees last night.

The strapping right-hander was on the league list for failure to report after the season within 10 days after the opening of the season, but provided by major league rules, he had heard exactly nothing from the Yankees management which refused to meet his demand for a $10,000 contract, and was released and he suffered at the situation.

Ruffing, who earned a contract calling for $15,000, an increase of $5,000 over his 1936 salary, still that the Yankees would sign or trade him. Otherwise, he said without the slightest trace of enthusiasm, he would accept one of several semi-professional offers.

Ramsey is Chief

At Prince Rupert
The annual general meeting of the Prince Rupert Golf Club was held on Wednesday, April 28. Following officers were elected: President, Mr. Jack Ramsey; Vice-president, Ernie Johnson; Secretary, Roger Rogers; Treasurer, A. P. Jenkinson; men's captain, J. H. Jenkinson.

Enthusiastic plans were made for a prospective active season.

Lodges to Form Softball League

In an effort to organize a fraternal softball league a meeting will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall. The various city fraternal lodges will be represented.

STILL IN TORM
Johnny "Torm" Weimuller, seven star and former Olympic swimming champion, recently led his own seven-year-old friend of 31 seconds for the 100-yard free style event.

HE MUST LIKE IT
Bill Tilden, professional tennis star, estimates he has played 1,000 matches in his 25-year career, averaging about 400 each year. This does not include prize tennis sessions.

Twirls 5-Hit Ball While Cards Clout Reds For 7-1 Score

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—Dizzy Dean ran his string of victories for the season to three and his sixteenth win in 22 with six, but the colorful pitcher failed to keep Cincinnati from scoring a lone run last night as his shaven streak at 20 innings.

Chicago— 510 000 000—1 5 0
St. Louis— 000 225—1 10 0
Schott, Brennan and Lombardi; Dean and Goggin.

REDS CLUB PHILS

THE CURIOUS WORLD

by J. KING KERGUSON

HONEYBEES

ARE NOT NATIVE TO THE NEW WORLD. THE WILD HONEYBEES OF AMERICA SPRANG FROM DOMESTICATED RACES IMPORTED FROM ABROAD.

THERE ARE THREE TYPES OF BEES... THE DRONES, OR MALES; THE QUEENS, OR FEMALES; AND THE WORKERS, WHICH ARE STERILE FEMALES. THE AVERAGE HIVE IS MADE UP OF ONE QUEEN, A FEW HUNDRED DRONES, AND ABOUT 60,000 WORKERS.

ALTHOUGH HONEY IS A VALUABLE ASSET TO THE WORLD, MAN IS MOST INDEBTED TO BEES BECAUSE OF THEIR SERVICE IN FLOWER POLLINATION. SHOULD BEES PERISH FROM THE EARTH, MORE THAN HALF OF THE FLOWERS OF THE GLOBE WOULD PERISH, ALSO.

WORKERS AND QUEENS COME FROM IDENTICAL EGGS... THE DEVELOPMENT OF A QUEEN BEING BROUGHT ABOUT BY FEEDING THE NEWLY-HATCHED LARVA ON A CURIOUS SUBSTANCE KNOWN AS "ROYAL JELLY."

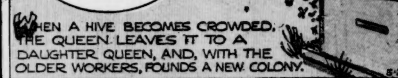

BEES WILL TRAVEL AS FAR AS EIGHT MILES IN SEARCH OF POLLEN AND NECTAR. THEY CAN CARRY A LOAD EQUAL TO 90 PER CENT OF THEIR OWN WEIGHT.

IN EACH HONEY-FILLED CELL, BEFORE IT IS SEALED, THE BEE PLACES A DROP OF FORMIC ACID TO PREVENT THE HONEY FROM SPOILING.

BEES KEEP THEIR HIVES AIR-CONDITIONED BY VIBRATING THEIR WINGS, IN FAN-LIKE MOTIONS.

WHEN A HIVE BECOMES CROWDED, THE QUEEN LEAVES IT TO A DAUGHTER, QUEEN, AND, WITH THE OLDER WORKERS, FOUNDS A NEW COLONY.
